THESE HORRID
AGE SPOTS*

FADE THEM OUT
*Weathered brown spots on the surface of your hands and face tell the world you're getting old—perhaps before you really are. Fade them away with new ESOTERICA, that ordinized cream that breaks up masses of pigment on the skin, makes hands look white and young again. Equally effective on the face, neck and arms. Not a cover-up. Acts in the skin—not on it. Fragrant, greaseless base for softening, lubricating skin as it clears up those blemishes.

Grateful to U. S. At the refugee reception center, Camp Kilmer, N.J., Mrs. Rosalie Bakos, 66, waits for a phone call to be put through to her brother in Bethlehem, Pa., by Mrs. Fannie Roncoli (right), Red Cross volunteer from Elizabeth, N.J. The Red Cross provides free telephone and cable messages for the refugees.

Coming to the U.S. under the auspices of the NCWC Catholic Relief Services, Mrs. Bakos says: "I cannot thank this government enough for the kindness it has shown us."

'Baby Doll' Advertisement Teaches Strange Theology

New York.—The following advertisement was run in Denver by the Fox Denver Theater for Baby Doll. It was interpreted by many Catholics as a strange attempt to teach them lax moral theology and to question the judgment of Church authorities. It was presented under a morally raw picture advertising the film. It said:

"To our friends and patrons: Since Baby Doll has received the 'condemned' rating of the Legion of Decency, we desire to inform you that this motion picture, written by Pulitzer Prize Winner Tennessee Williams and directed by Academy Award Winner Elia Kazan, has received approval of the Motion Picture Production Code. Baby Doll is an adult motion picture. No children will be admitted."

Catholics in at least 10 dioceses in the country have been warned by their Bishops to stay away from Baby Doll under pain of serious sin.

In Connecticut, Archbishop Henry J. O'Brien of Hartford and Bishops Bernard J. Flanagan of Norwich and Lawrence J. Shehan of Bridgeport issued an unprecedented joint statement advising Catholics they have an obligation "in conscience to stay away from the film."

Other heads of sees who have warned Catholics about the film included Cardinals Spellman of New York and McIntyre of Los Angeles; Archbishops Francis P. Keough of Baltimore, J. F. O'Hara of Philadelphia, Archbishop Edward Hoban, Bishop of Cleveland; Bishop James E. Kearney of Rochester; Bishop William A. Scully of Albany, chairman of the Bishops' Committee on Motion Pictures, who forbade Catholics in his diocese to attend movies at the Strand Theater in Albany for six months because the movie house showed Baby Doll.

Warner Brothers, distributors of the film, based on a story by Tennessee Williams, announced in New York City that the picture has been booked in 118 U. S. cities.

The 22-theater Maine and New Hampshire theater chain announced that it will refuse to handle the film. Joseph P. Kennedy, prominent Catholic and former Ambassador to Britain, owns the chain. He said: "I have been in business for 45 years and I think this is the worst thing that has ever been done to the people and to the industry."

Apostolic Spirit in U. S. Cited by Belgian Prelate

Washington. — Young Christian Workers' groups in the U.S. spotlight to a large extent the international strength and effectiveness of this movement. America is a great and powerful reservoir of apostolic energy.

These observations were voiced by Monsignor Joseph Cardijn, founder of the Young Christian Workers' movement, who arrived here following a visit to YCW units in Latin and Central America. In the U.S. there are YCW groups in 25 cities.

Since its founding in 1912, Monsignor Cardijn continued, the movement has spread over most of the world. It numbers 1,500,000 members in 75 countries and territories. All members are workers, and leaders are elected from the ranks.

Monsignor Cardijn, who marked his 50th year as a priest last July, stressed that the YCW movement is one of education for workers, of organized services to workers and their families, and of representation of workers before public and private opinion.

As an indication of the spiritual nature of the movement, the Belgian prelate noted that about 5,000 former members have entered the religious life. The Ministers of Labor in France and Bolivia are former leaders in the movement.

Concerning workers' education, Monsignor Cardijn said the YCW aim is to teach inexperienced youths what their vocation as workers truly is, together with their duties and privileges, and to live that life according to the grace they receive from God.

Before crossing the Atlantic, the YCW founder attended the first continental session of African YCW groups, representing 16 countries. Members are preparing for the World Congress of the Lay Apostolate in Rome next August. (NCWC Wire)

Brother Who Guided 'Babe' Ruth Is Dead

Baltimore. — Xaverian Brother Herman Bahr, the man who first taught George Herman "Babe" Ruth to play baseball, died here at 75.

The son of an Army sergeant-Indian fighter, Brother Herman was born at a fort near Laramie, Wyo. He joined the Xaverian Brothers when he was 16 and was stationed at St. Mary's Industrial School here when the future baseball star came under his wing.

Ruth was 13 when he became a pupil of Brother Herman, who acknowledged that he was an apt pupil "but had rough going more than a few times." Ruth took the name of Herman at his Confirmation in honor of the brother. Their friendship continued until Ruth's death in 1948.

Skill Not Lacking In Handless Youth

Camp Kilmer, N.J.—Among the Hungarians coming to this country under NCWC Catholic Relief Services is Zoltan Nagy. Courage, patience, and perseverance are synonyms for this 24-year-old refugee.

In 1945 he lost both his hands and parts of his arms in a missile explosion. He has overcome this handicap to become an expert photographer, developing, enlarging, and printing pictures.

He plays Ping-pong, swims, skis, drives, writes, and shaves himself without assistance. He will live in Bethlehem, Pa.

Little Boys' Bravery Proved in Hungary

New York. — "Little boys who knew no fear" poured gasoline into Soviet tanks in Hungary and then set them afire, a Hungarian student rebel told a Manhattan College assembly arranged by the National Student Association.

George Linzi, 21, who helped capture Radio Budapest, said the lads were about 12 years old. "After they poured the gasoline," he said, "the youths fired an incendiary bullet into the tank to set the gasoline afire. Machine gunners would be waiting for the Russians to escape."

His 16-year-old brother barricaded himself in his high school with the other students and held that position for two days before being overrun. "Armed with light machine guns, they killed more than 240 Russian soldiers," Linzi said. "Twelve students fell. The rest were captured and deported to Russia. My brother escaped from a prison camp at Kiev, and I've heard that he made his way back to Austria."

Pope Knights Man Disabled 37 Years

Palm Springs, Calif.—Frank Scully, author and newsman, has been made a Knight of St. Gregory by the Pope. Bishop Charles Buddy of San Diego said Mr. Scully was knighted because of his declaration of faith in the face of physical handicaps.

A bone disease victim since 1919, he has spent many years in 30 hospitals in seven countries. Former president of Hollywood's Catholic Interracial Council, he is president of California's Muscular Dystrophy Foundation.

Foreign Stars Set To Remain in U.S.

New York. — Olympic athletes, officials, coaches, and journalists from Soviet satellite nations arrived here 38 strong after refusing to return to their homelands from the Olympic Games in Australia.

After visiting San Francisco, the 21 men and nine girl athletes from Hungary, four Hungarian officials, coaches, and newsmen, and four Romanian athletes were flown here for resettlement. The 38 who decided not to return to their homelands will be resettled in the U. S. by NCWC Catholic Relief Services and other groups.

Polish Paper Reveals Religion Study Rules

Warsaw.—The Warsaw Communist paper, Trybuna Ludu, has published details of the new regulations reintroducing religion into Polish schools.

In force since Dec. 15, the rules permit the teaching of religion as an optional subject to primary and secondary pupils whose parents request such instruction in writing.

Although their final appointment and dismissal is subject to civil authority, ecclesiastical authority must authorize religion teachers. Allowing exception, the instruction is to be given in schools after class hours.

200,000 Mexicans In Workers' Rites

Mexico City. — Two hundred thousand workers participated in the National Pilgrimage of Workers at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Archbishop Miguel Dario Miranda y Gomez offered a Solemn Pontifical Mass, and there were as many as three other Masses being offered simultaneously on different altars at various times.

The annual pilgrimage gives workers an opportunity to thank God, through Our Lady of Guadalupe, for the benefits that they have received.

63 Hungarians Enroll

America Best Source Of Jesuit Vocations

New Orleans. — America has more Jesuit vocations than any other place in the world, according to Father Paul Dezza, S.J., former rector of the Pontifical Gregorian University. He visited Loyola University.

Fr. Paul Dezza

The students' constant association with Jesuits at high schools and colleges often encourages their entrance into the religious order, he said. Father Dezza is general secretary of the Federation of Catholic Universities of the World, with headquarters in Rome. He went from New Orleans to Bogota, Colombia, for a meeting of university rectors.

Secular Dailies Laud Pius XII's Message

New York. — Secular newspapers throughout America were loud in their praise of the importance and wisdom of the radioed message of Pius XII.

The New York Times said that, of the 18 previous messages of the present Holy Father, none has been "so weighty, so vigorous, and so forthright in the political sense as this year's."

Christopher TV Films To Feature Unknowns

New York. — In 1957 Christopher TV programs will feature 84 individuals, few of whom are in the public eye. Each is a striking example of "what one person can do" in vital spheres of influence, according to Father James Keller, M.M., founder of the Christophers.

In the past 12 months, Father Keller said, Christopher awards focused attention on 91 writers, directors, and producers in the newspaper, book, radio, TV, and motion picture fields who are little known to the public.

Ninety-six persons from all walks of life, the Christopher director continued, were shown on TV programs in 1956 to tell from personal experience what one individual can accomplish with God's help to change the world for the better.

Stress Father's Role, Family Expert Says

Syracuse, N. Y. — More emphasis should be given to the role of the father in child-rearing, according to Monsignor Irving A. DeBlanc, director of the NCWC Family Life Bureau.

"The inadequate father has become the greatest direct factor in contributing to juvenile delinquency," he said. "The father is meant to be the builder, the provider, the teacher, the disciplinarian, the sanctifier."

In outlining a six-point family life program for this diocese at the invitation of Bishop Walter A. Foery, Monsignor DeBlanc included pre-marriage conferences, family conferences for married couples, conferences for high school seniors and their parents, family clubs, a diocesan Family Day, and marriage counseling.

Knowledge of Liturgy Is Praised by Pontiff

Oruro, Bolivia. — A deep knowledge of the Church's liturgy gives Catholics a better understanding of the sense of worship and enables them to offer themselves to God with an increasing purity of intention, Pius XII said in a message sent here.

The message was dispatched by the Papal Secretariat of State to the First National Week of Pastoral Liturgy. It was read by Archbishop Umberto Mozzoni, Apostolic Delegate to Bolivia.

Delegates to the session resolved to initiate a course of premarital instructions for young people contemplating marriage. It was decided to publish a pamphlet explaining the ceremony of betrothal.

God Love You

Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen

IT IS too simple a statement to say that Our Lord was poor. Because He said: "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the air their nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His Head," we are apt to think that Our Lord was poor like millions of people in our Mission lands. Such is not the case. The refugees from Communism, in Korea, Vietnam, the lepers in Africa were born poor but Our Lord "became poor," which is quite a different thing. St. Paul tells us: "He impoverished Himself for your sakes, when He was so rich, so that you might become rich through His poverty." From the height of the incomparable riches of Divinity He descends to the depths of poverty, want and emptiness as the Son of Man.

The universe was His, because He made it; and yet He claimed nothing in it. The point is then that He wants us to exchange our material riches for spiritual riches. Our fullness comes from His emptiness and our emptiness of the material purchases His riches of the spiritual. Any gift He has for us depends on the fact that He became poor. Now He wants us to do what He did, namely, to take any superfluity that we have and to "become a little poorer" for His sake, thus receiving in return His spiritual wealth of grace.

Because the Society for the Propagation of the Faith belongs to the Vicar of Christ we may beg on in the way Christ would have us beg. We do not want you to give something; we want you to exchange something—your impoverishment through a sacrifice for your enrichment through an increase of grace of Christ. Develop the spirit of detachment daily by becoming poor in some little way, i.e., denying yourself dessert or cigarettes. Then send us your sacrifice which will go to the Holy Father for the Mission poor who will be your intercessors in the kingdom of heaven. Actually we are doing you a favor by telling you this Divine truth, but we are grateful not just for your gift but for your becoming more closely united to Our Lord and His Blessed Mother, the Holy Father and the Missions of the Church.

GOD LOVE YOU to C.W.H. for $50 given for the love of God . . . to S.M.G. for $2.50. "The enclosed check represents the sacrifice of a box of candy." . . . to J.R.F. for $200. "It is for my membership in the Missions instead of the Country Club." . . . to the C children for a $5 check made up of sacrifice money given to the Missions out of their own little earnings.

LOOK THROUGH THIS LIST: Bracelets, cufflinks, earrings, lockets, lodge pins, necklaces, precious stones, watches, rings—any old gold that you would like to put into the treasury of the Missions. Remember, "Where thy treasure is, there also will be thy heart." Lay down your treasures for the Missions and "lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven."

Cut out this Column, pin your sacrifice to it and send it to the Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York 1x, N.Y., U.S.A.; or your own National Diocesan Director, the Most Rev. Charles H. Helmsing, 4451 Lindell Boulevard, St. Louis 8, Mo.
